

Shoghi Effendi is so modest and so anxious to have the believers devoted to the Central Figures of our Faith, that he never features his own personality! But as you truly remark, his works and his acts have revealed him and endeared him to the Baha'is.

With warm Baha'i greetings, Ruhiyyih

P.S. I wish people would stop being so age-conscious. After all it is the personality that counts. Why shouldn't people of 15 have just as good ideas as people of 50? But perhaps a little less mature and showing less experience of life.
