

Mother's Stories: Recollections of Abdu'l-Baha

Exported from Holy-Writings.com on 2026-07-05 — 1 clipping

The Reverend Howard Ives, a Unitarian minister, pastor of a church in Summit New Jersey, and disalusioned seeker for higher truth and the true religion, met Abdu'l-Bahá in New York City in 1912. After declaring his belief in Bahá'u'lláh he spent the rest of his life teaching the Faith of God to who ever he could.

This site is dedicated to his memory and presents some memorabilia of and about Mr. Ives.

Mother's Stories Stories of Abdu'l-Bahá and Early Believers told by Muriel Ives Barrow Newhall

Download the PDF file of all stories

Part One:

Mother's Stories of Early Bahá'ís

Introduction

O Thou Help Me

I Am Doing

What Realy Happens

Tea in Paris

Pamphlets

Teach, Teach, Teach

Interactive Guidance

Interactive Guidance II

Character Development

Gift

Service

Marriage

Wheel Chair Pioneer

To the Light

Unstated Invitation

Interactive Guidance III

If Poverty...

Green Acre

Deserving Boots

May waits for Thomas

The Meeting

Part Two:

Mother's stories of Abdu'l-Bahá

Introduction

Repetition

Golden rain.

Not yet known

Translation

Dedication

At the zoo

Questions not asked

Books

Study, study, study

Sow the seeds

A Book

Obedience and trust

Charity

Lover of truth

Detachmen

In His footsteps

Download the PDF file of all stories

— Mother's Stories: Recollections of Abdu'l-Baha (Used by permission of the curator)