From the Pen of our beloved Guardian :

" To dear friends,At this season of the year when Bahá'ís throughout the world are celebrating the Ridvan festivities and are renewing their determination to work and live under the banner of Bahá'u'lláh".

- Shoghi Effendi (Letter dated 30 April 1930)

" ... the Ridvan feast, which for all administrative purposes, is the beginning of the Bahá'í year".

- Shoghi Effendi (Latter dated June 05, 1934 -Quoted in Dawn of a New Day, p.49)

Greatest Holy Leaf writes :

Greatest Holy Leaf writes:

"The festival of Ridvan is come and the splendor of the light of God is shining from the invisible horizon of His mercy. The overflowing grace of the Lord of oneness is pouring down copiously from the unseen world and the glad-tidings of the kingdom are coming in from all countries. The resplendent morn that betokens the advancement of the Cause of God and heralds exaltation of His word is dawning an every region."

Study Program - Ridvan Message 2001 :

To the Bahá'ís of the World

Bahá'ís - The faithful followers of Bahá'u'lláhWorld

- "Know ye that by "the world" is meant your unawareness of Him Who is your maker ..." (GWB, p. 276)
- It also refers to the Bahá'í world

Dearly loved Friends,

Friends - Traditional greeting of the beloved guardian to the Bahá'ís of the world

With great joy in our hearts and high expectations

Heart - "what can alone contain Me is the heart of him, that believeth in Me and is faithful to My Cause". -- (GWB p. 186)Expectation

- "We entreat God to graciously aid His servants. What this Wronged One doth expect from everyone is justice and fairness. Let no one be content with mere hearing; rather doth it behove everyone to ponder that which this Wronged One hath revealed."

- Bahá'u'lláh, Tablets, p. 130

welcome to this Ridvan

Ridvan - " Arise, and proclaim unto the entire creation the tidings that He Who is the All-Merciful hath directed His steps towards the Ridvan and entered it".

(GWB,p.31)
