7:4 And say to him: Be firm and be calm. Do not be afraid and do not lose heart on account of those two smoking stubs of firebrands, on account of the raging of Rezin and his Arameans and the son of Remaliah. bthe son of Remaliah To refer to a person only as “the son of—” is slighting; cf. note at 1 Sam. 10.11.

7:5 Because the Arameans—with Ephraim and the son of Remaliah—have plotted against you, saying,

7:6 ‘We will march against Judah and invade and conquer it, and we will set up as king in it the son of Tabeel,’ cthe son of Tabeel Cf. note at v. 4.

7:7 thus said my Sovereign GOD: It shall not succeed, It shall not come to pass.

7:8 For the chief city of Aram is Damascus, And the chief of Damascus is Rezin;

7:9 The chief city of Ephraim is Samaria, And the chief of Samaria is the son of Remaliah. dThe thought is continued by 8.8b–10; cf. 2 Chron. 13.8–12. 7:11 “Ask for a sign from the ETERNAL your God, anywhere down to Sheol or up

7:12 But Ahaz replied, “I will not ask, and I will not test GOD.”

7:13 “Listen, House of David,” [Isaiah] retorted, “is it not enough for you to treat the agents the agents I.e., the prophets; cf. Targum, Rashi, Kimhi. as helpless that you also treat my God as helpless?ias helpless By insisting on soliciting the aid of Assyria (see 2 Kings 16.7ff.; cf. below, v. 20). “Treat as helpless” follows the translation of Saadia; cf. 7:15 (By the time he learns to reject the bad and choose the good, people will be feeding on curds and honey.)

7:16 For before the lad knows to reject the bad and choose the good, the ground whose two kings you dread shall be abandoned.

7:18 “In that day, GOD will whistle to the flies at the ends of the water channels of Egypt and to the bees in the land of Assyria;

7:19 and they shall all come and alight in the rugged wadis, and in the clefts of the rocks, and in all the thornbrakes, and in all the watering places.

7:20 “In that day, my Sovereign will cut away with the razor that is hired beyond the Euphrates—with the king of Assyrialking of Assyria Who was hired by Ahaz; cf. notes at vv. 13 and 17.—the hair of the head and the hair of the legs,mthe hair of the legs I.e., the pubic hair. and it shall clip off the beard as well.

7:21 And in that day, each household shall save alive a heifer of the herd and two animals of the flock.

7:22 (And they shall obtain so much milk that they shall eat curds.) Thus everyone who is left in the land shall feed on curds and honey.

7:23 “For in that day, every spot where there could stand a thousand vines worth a thousand shekels of silverevery spot where ... silver I.e., all the best farmland, corresponding to the hairiest parts of the body; v. 20. shall become a wilderness of thornbush and thistle.

8:5 Again GOD spoke to me, thus:

8:6 “Because that people has spurned The gently flowing waters of Siloam” flowing waters of Siloam The conduit—and later the tunnel—of Siloam conveyed into Jerusalem the waters of Gihon, which symbolize “GOD of Hosts who dwells on Mount Zion” (v. 18). For the nature of the rejection see note at 7.13.—

8:7 Assuredly, The Sovereign will bring up against them The mighty, massive waters of the Euphrates, The king of Assyria and all his multitude. It shall rise above all its channels, And flow over all its beds,

8:8 And swirl through Judah like a flash flood Reaching up to the neck. up to the neck I.e., Judah shall be imperiled, but, in contrast to Aram and Ephraim (v. 4), not destroyed. See note at 7.9. But with us is God, Whose wings are spread As wide as your land is broad!

8:10 Hatch a plot—it shall be foiled; Agree on action—it shall not succeed. For with us is God!

8:11 For this is what GOD said to me, upon taking me by the hand taking me by the hand I.e., singling me out; cf. 41.9, 13; 42.6; 45.1; Jer. 31.32 (v. 31 in some editions). and charging me not to walk in the path of that people:

8:16 Bind up the message, Seal the instruction with My disciples.”

8:17 So I will wait for GOD, whose face is hidden from the House of Jacob, and in whom I will trust.

8:18 Here stand I and the children GOD has given me as signs and portents in Israel from GOD of Hosts, who dwells on Mount Zion.

8:19 Now, should people say to you, “Inquire of the ghosts and familiar spirits that chirp and moan; for a people may inquire of its divine beings and divine beings I.e., the shades of the dead; cf. 1 Sam. 28.13.—of the dead on behalf of the living—

36:1 aThis passage occurs also as 2 Kings 18.13–20.19, with a number of variants, some of which will be cited here in the footnotes. In the fourteenth year of King Hezekiah, King Sennacherib of Assyria marched against all the fortified towns of Judah and seized them.

36:2 From Lachish, the king of Assyria sent the Rabshakeh,bRabshakeh An Assyrian title; cf. “Tartan,” 20.1. with a large force, to King Hezekiah in Jerusalem. [The Rabshakeh] took up a position near the conduit of the Upper Pool, by the road of the Fuller’s Field;

36:3 and Eliakim son of Hilkiyah who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder went out to him.

36:4 The Rabshakeh said to them, “You tell Hezekiah: Thus said the Great King, the king of Assyria: What makes you so confident?

36:5 I suppose I suppose Cf. 2 Kings 18:20 “You must think.” mere talk makes counsel and valor for war! Look, on whom are you relying, that you have rebelled against me?

36:6 You are relying on Egypt, that splintered reed of a staff, which enters and punctures the palm of anyone who leans on it. That’s what Pharaoh king of Egypt is like to all who rely on him.

36:7 And if you tell me that you are relying on the ETERNAL your God, this is the very one whose shrines and altars Hezekiah did away with, telling Judah and Jerusalem, ‘You must worship only at this altar!’

36:8 Come now, make this wager with my master, the king of Assyria: I’ll give you two thousand horses, if you can produce riders to mount them.

36:9 So how could you refuse anything, even to the deputy of one of my master’s lesser servants, relying on Egypt for chariots and riders?

36:10 And do you think I have marched against this land to destroy it without GOD? It was GOD who told me: Go up against that land and destroy it.”

36:11 Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah replied to the Rabshakeh, “Please, speak to your servants in Aramaic, since we understand it; do not speak to us in Judean in the hearing of the people on the wall.”

36:12 But the Rabshakeh replied, “Was it to your master and to you that my master sent me to speak those words? It was precisely to the men who are sitting on the wall—who will have to eat their dung and drink their urine with you.”

36:13 And the Rabshakeh stood and called out in a loud voice in Judean:

36:14 “Hear the words of the Great King, the king of Assyria! Thus said the king: Don’t let Hezekiah deceive you, for he will not be able to save you.

36:15 Don’t let Hezekiah make you rely on GOD, saying, ‘GOD will surely save us; this city will not fall into the hands of Assyria!’

36:16 Don’t listen to Hezekiah. For thus said the king of Assyria: Make your peace with me and come out to me, to me I.e., to my representative the Rabshakeh. so that you may all eat from your vines and your fig trees and drink water from your cisterns, 36:17 until I come and take you away to a land like your own, a land of bread and wine, of grain [fields] and vineyards.

36:18 Beware of letting Hezekiah mislead you by saying, ‘GOD will save us.’ Did any of the gods of the other nations save their land from the king of Assyria?

36:19 Where were the gods of Hamath and Arpad? Where were the gods of Sepharvaim? And did they I.e., the gods of Samaria. save Samaria from me?

36:20 Which among all the gods of those countries saved their countries from me, that GOD should save Jerusalem from me?”

36:21 But they were silent and did not answer him with a single word; for the king’s order was: “Do not answer him.”

36:22 And so Eliakim son of Hilkiyah who was in charge of the palace, Shebna the scribe, and Joah son of Asaph the recorder came to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and they reported to him what the Rabshakeh had said.

37:1 When King Hezekiah heard this, he rent his clothes and covered himself with sackcloth and went into the House of GOD.

37:2 He also sent Eliakim, who was in charge of the palace, Shebna, the scribe, and the senior priests, covered with sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah son of Amoz.

37:3 They said to him, “Thus said Hezekiah: This day is a day of distress, of chastisement, and of disgrace. The babes have reached the birthstool, but the strength to give birth is lacking.^aThe babes have reached the birthstool, but the strength to give birth is lacking I.e., the situation is desperate, and we are at a loss.

37:4 Perhaps the ETERNAL your God will take note of the words of the Rabshakeh, whom his master the king of Assyria has sent to blaspheme the living God, and will mete out judgment for the words that the ETERNAL your God has heard—if you will offer up prayer for the surviving remnant.”

37:5 When King Hezekiah’s ministers came to Isaiah,

37:6 Isaiah said to them, “Tell your master as follows: Thus said GOD: Do not be frightened by the words of blasphemy against Me that you have heard from the minions of the king of Assyria.

37:7 I will delude^bdelude Lit. “put a spirit in.” him: He will hear a rumor and return to his land, and I will make him fall by the sword in his land.”

37:8 The Rabshakeh, meanwhile, heard that [the king] had left Lachish; he turned back and found the king of Assyria attacking Libnah.

37:9 But [the king of Assyria] learned that King Tirhakah of Cush had come out to fight him; and when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying,

37:10 “Tell this to King Hezekiah of Judah: Do not let your God, on whom you are relying, mislead you into thinking that Jerusalem will not be delivered into the hands of the king of Assyria.

37:11 You yourself have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all the lands, how they have annihilated them; and can you escape?

37:12 Were the nations that my predecessors^cpredecessors Lit. “fathers.” destroyed—Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the Bethedenites in Telassar—saved by their gods?

37:13 Where is the king of Hamath? and the king of Arpad? and the kings of Lair, Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah?”

37:14 Hezekiah received the letter from the messengers and read it. Hezekiah then went up to the House of GOD and spread it out before GOD.

37:15 And Hezekiah prayed to GOD:

37:16 “O GOD of Hosts—God of Israel—Enthroned on the Cherubim! You alone are God of all the kingdoms of the earth. You made the heavens and the earth.

37:17 O ETERNAL One, incline Your ear and hear, open Your eye and see. Hear all the words that Sennacherib has sent to blaspheme the living God!

37:18 True, O ETERNAL One, the kings of Assyria have annihilated all the nations^dnations So 2 Kings 19.17, and 13 mss. here; most mss. and editions read “lands.” and their lands

37:19 and have committed their gods to the flames and have destroyed them; for they are not gods, but the handiwork of mere mortals, wood and stone.

37:20 But now, O ETERNAL One our God, deliver us from his hands, and let all the kingdoms of the earth know that You, O ETERNAL One, alone [are God].”e[are God] Supplied from 2 Kings 19.19.

37:21 Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent this message to Hezekiah: “Thus said GOD, the God of Israel, to whom you have prayed, concerning King Sennacherib of Assyria—

37:22 this is the word that GOD has spoken concerning him: Fair Maiden Zion despises you, She mocks at you; Fair Jerusalem shakes Her head at you.

37:23 Whom have you blasphemed and reviled? Against whom made loud your voice And haughtily raised your eyes? Against the Holy One of Israel!

37:24 Through your servants you have blasphemed the Sovereign. Because you thought, “Thanks to my vast chariotry, It is I who have climbed the highest mountains, To the remotest parts of the Lebanon, And have cut down its loftiest cedars, Its choicest cypresses, And have reached its highest peak, Its densest forest. fIts densest forest Lit. “Its farmland forest”; exact meaning of Heb. uncertain.

37:25 It is I who have drawn drawn Or “dug”; meaning of Heb. uncertain. And drunk water. I have dried up with the soles of my feet All the streams of Egypt.’

37:26 Have you not heard? Of old I planned that very thing, I designed it long ago, And now have fulfilled it. And it has come to pass, Laying fortified towns waste in desolate heaps.

37:27 Their inhabitants are helpless, Dismayed and shamed. They were but grass of the field And green herbage, Grass of the roofs that is blasted Before the east wind. hthat is blasted / Before the east wind So ms. 1QIsa; cf. 2 Kings 19.26. The usual reading in our passage means, literally, “and a field [?] before standing grain.”

37:28 I know your stayings And your goings and comings, And how you have raged against Me,

37:29 Because you have raged against Me, And your tumult has reached My ears, I will place My hook in your nose And My bit between your jaws; And I will make you go back by the road By which you came.

37:30 “And this is the sign for you: you I.e., Hezekiah. This year you eat what grows of itself, and the next year what springs from that, and in the third year sow and reap and plant vineyards and eat their fruit.

37:31 And the survivors of the House of Judah that have escaped shall renew its trunk below and produce boughs above.

37:32 For a remnant shall come forth from Jerusalem, Survivors from Mount Zion. The zeal of GOD of Hosts Shall bring this to pass.

37:33 “Assuredly, thus said GOD concerning the king of Assyria: He shall not enter this city; He shall not shoot an arrow at it, Or advance upon it with a shield, Or pile up a siege mound against it.

37:34 He shall go back By the way he came, He shall not enter this city—declares GOD;

37:35 I will protect and save this city for My sake And for the sake of My servant David.”

37:36 [That night]j[That night] Supplied from 2 Kings 19.35. an angel of GOD went out and struck down one hundred and eighty-five thousand in the Assyrian camp, and the following morning they were all dead corpses.

37:37 So King Sennacherib of Assyria broke camp and retreated, and stayed in Nineveh.

37:38 While he was worshiping in the temple of his god Nisroch, he was struck down with the sword by his sons Adrammelech and Sarezer. They fled to the land of Ararat, and his son Esarhaddon succeeded him as king.

38:1 In those days Hezekiah fell dangerously ill. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz came and said to him, "Thus said GOD: Set your affairs in order, for you are going to die; you will not get well."

38:2 Thereupon Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to GOD.

38:3 "Please, O ETERNAL One," he said, "remember how I have walked before You sincerely and wholeheartedly, and have done what is pleasing to You." And Hezekiah wept profusely.

38:4 Then the word of GOD came to Isaiah:

38:5 "Go and tell Hezekiah: Thus said GOD, the God of your forefather David: I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears. I hereby add fifteen years to your life.

38:6 I will also rescue you and this city from the hands of the king of Assyria. I will protect this city.

38:7 And this is the sign for you from GOD that GOD will do the thing that was promised:

38:8 I am going to make the shadow on the steps, which has descended on the dial of Ahaz because of the sun, recede ten steps." And the sun's shadow] receded ten steps, the same steps as it had descended.

38:21 When Isaiah said, “Let them take a cake of figs and apply it to the rash, and he will recover,”

38:22 Hezekiah asked, “What will be the sign that I shall go up to the House of GOD?”

39:1 At that time, Merodach-baladan son of Baladan, the king of Babylon, sent [envoys with] a letter and a gift to Hezekiah, for he had heard about his illness and recovery.

39:2 Hezekiah was pleased by their coming, and he showed them his treasure house—the silver, the gold, the spices, and the fragrant oil—and all his armory, and everything that was to be found in his storehouses. There was nothing in his palace or in all his realm that Hezekiah did not show them.

39:3 Then the prophet Isaiah came to King Hezekiah. “What,” he demanded of him, “did those men say to you? Where have they come to you from?” “They have come to me,” replied Hezekiah, “from a far country, from Babylon.”

39:4 Next he asked, “What have they seen in your palace?” And Hezekiah replied, “They have seen everything there is in my palace. There was nothing in my storehouses that I did not show them.”

39:5 Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, “Hear the word of GOD of Hosts:

39:6 A time is coming when everything in your palace, which your ancestors have stored up to this day, will be carried off to Babylon; nothing will be left behind, said GOD.

39:7 And some of your sons, your own issue, whom you will have fathered, will be taken to serve as eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.”

39:8 Hezekiah declared to Isaiah, “The word of GOD that you have spoken is good.” For he thought, “It means that safety is assured for
